(2) No person shall use the name of a financial institution or a name similar to that of a financial institution in a written solicitation for financial products or services directed to consumers, if that use could cause a reasonable person to be confused, mistaken, or deceived initially or otherwise as to either of the following:

(a) The financial institution's sponsorship, affiliation, connection, or association with the person using the name; or

(b) The financial institution's approval or endorsement of the person using the name or the person's products or services.
