

NEBRASKA DELAYED DEPOSIT SERVICES LICENSING ACT

IMPORTANT NOTICE REGARDING LEGISLATIVE CHANGES EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 2019

On April 19, 2018, Nebraska Governor Pete Ricketts approved Legislative Bill 194 (“L.B. 194”) which was passed by the Nebraska Unicameral on April 18, 2018. L.B. 194 amended certain provisions of the Delayed Deposit Services Licensing Act, Neb. Rev. Stat. §§ 45-901 to 45-931 (“Act”), which will become effective on January 1, 2019. The revised Act can be found at <https://nebraskalegislature.gov>.

The Nebraska Department of Banking and Finance (“NDBF”) will update current Interpretative Opinions and Frequently Asked Questions providing guidance on the Act on this website on or immediately after the effective date of such changes. Guidance regarding the Act in its current form continues to be available on the NDBF website at <https://ndbf.nebraska.gov>.

Questions regarding the Act may be directed to the NDBF at dob.consumerfinance@nebraska.gov or by calling (402) 471-2171.