NEBRASKA MONEY TRANSMITTER LICENSE

Who is required to have this license?

Any person in the business of the sale or issuance of payment instruments or stored value or of receiving money or monetary value for transmission to a location within or outside the United States by any and all means, including wire, facsimile, or electronic transfer. Money transmission includes bill payment services not limited to the right to receive payment of any claim for another but does not include bill payment services in which an agent of a payee received money or monetary value on behalf of such payee. Neb. Rev. Stat. § 8-2716.

Who does not need this license?

This is a partial list of exemptions. For a complete list of exemptions, please refer to Neb. Rev. Stat. § 8-2724.

• United States or any department, agency, or instrumentality thereof
• United States Postal Service
• Financial Institutions including banks, savings and loans, and credit unions chartered by any state or by the United States
• An operator of a payment system only to the extent that the payment system provides processing, clearing, or settlement services between or among persons who are all exempt under this section in connection with wire transfers, credit card transactions, debit card transactions, automated clearinghouse transfers, or similar fund transfers.

Pre-requisites for license applications?

• Net Worth: At Least $50,000.00 as determined by generally accepted accounting principles. Audited financial statements are required to be submitted with the license application and on an annual basis thereafter.

• Bond amount: $100,000.00 minimum bond amount. The Director may increase the amount for good cause. If the applicant has previously conducted money transmission activities in Nebraska, the amount of the bond may need to be increased pursuant to Neb. Rev. Stat. § 8-2727. The maximum required bond is $250,000.00.

• Authorized delegates and company owned locations: All applicants must identify all Nebraska locations where their business is being conducted. This should include the identification of any company-owned outlets as well as any authorized delegates. The Nebraska Money Transmitter Act mandates the use of an authorized delegate contract and identifies specific items which must be addressed in the contract.
• Character and fitness: The applicant must demonstrate experience, character, and general fitness to warrant the belief that the applicant’s business will be conducted honestly, fairly, and in a manner commanding the confidence and trust of the community.
